The slightly smoked, earthy style of Hangi cuisine has previously only been achieved when prepared traditionally in the ground. Our business officially started in Brisbane in February 2000 and we are fully licensed with the Health Department. With our unique cooking concept we have been able to reproduce the traditional taste of New Zealand's Hangi for Australian consumers.

All food preparation is carried out in our self-contained Mobile kitchen and is cooked fresh on-site, in a specially manufactured oven. Food is separated into 3 large stainless steel baskets and cooked while you and your guests relax.

Perfect for private, community and business functions such as:

- Weddings
- Engagements
- Birthdays and 21st's
- Sports club break-ups
- Social functions
- Group training
- Christmas parties
- Any occasion!!

Hangi's To U is situated just 10 minutes North of Brisbane City, which enables us to easily travel geographically to the greater Brisbane area and surrounding regions.
